

January 3, 2013

TWINSBURG -- The Board of Directors of the Twinsburg Chamber of Commerce recently elected the following officers for 2013, including: Peter DeSouza from Violet Orthodontics as president; Chip Hautala from Hautala Consulting as first vice president; Jill Patterson from United Way of Summit County as second vice president, Gary Sorace from Ohio Classic Awards as secretary; Deborah Zaebst from Angle, Zaebst and Associates as treasurer; and Timothy Edgington from Edward Jones as past president.

Other members elected to the Board of Directors by the membership for terms starting Jan. 1, 2013, include Allison Chance (Twinsburg Public Library); Kevin Gehrt (AssuraMed); and Michelle Willmott \(Felber PR & Marketing\).

Returning directors include Chad Bronson (Cleveland Clinic); Tom Lane (Red's Place/ New Adventures); and Mary Perlmutter (Twinsburg Eye Associates).

The Twinsburg Chamber of Commerce is organized for the purpose of promoting, supporting and serving its members, and advancing and encouraging economic development among the commercial, industrial and civic interests of its trade area. For more information visit www.twinsburgchamber.com.

Twinsburg Chamber of Commerce Past President, Tim Edgington introduces the 2013 Board of Directors during the December member luncheon at the Hilton Garden Inn.